

Bluetongue

Why vaccinate in 2009?

A free entry event, one of a series across the South West of England providing an update on the latest situation and a reminder of the need to vaccinate.

With leading expert

Dr. Chris Oura

from The Institute of Animal Health plus industry representatives

Kingston Maurwood College, Dorchester

Tuesday 24th February

in the Pengelly Room

This event starts at 7pm. - Tea and coffee provided For more information and to book a place call 0845 458 7485 or email rbs@duchy.ac.uk

These events are being organised by Duchy College's Rural Business School as part of The Rural Development Programme for England supported by the South West Regional Development Agency.

For more information visit www.bluetonguesouthwest.co.uk